Dear Cousin Therie,

I was very pleased
you may be sure to receive two birth day letters. I thought I would answer it right away to surprise you. I had a pleasant birth day
but I was sorry to hear that you were sick up there. But ^{hope} you are all better now. We have also had very warm weather here for this time of year. It is kind could go to. The Temperance Club is getting up an entertainment for the poor children of the slums of New York. There will be a sale of fancy articles and a promenade and the entertainment which will be the Monday before Christmas. The money which we will get charging probably 10 cents admission, and the money from the sales will go to the lady a Mrs. Worthington who will use it for the the poor children of New York.

now. We have just had one small
snow-storm down here,
and I hope winter is not hastening although it is almost

"Thanks giving time"

I shall be glad when it comes, won't you?
We now have singing
school down here and we are now learning
the notes. Its lots of fun!
I have a singing book
and its fun to read the notes. I wish you lived down here so you

Three other girls and myself are on the
"Table Committee". We will have to trim the tables which we are going to trim with red and white, the Temperance color.
The children of the Temperance club are going to make fancy articles and candy to sell and we will have to mark the prices on the articles.

write please when you can. Love to everybody
